

Quality policy

Each partner company, each employee is responsible for the quality of their work themselves.

It / he knows the requirements to meet the required quality in its sphere of activity.

Missing information are to request from the supervisor or in the case of the partner companies from Z+P immediately.

Through continuous improvements in organizational, operational and technical issues, we increase the quality of our services and products.

At the same time we keep our costs to as low as possible, secure and improve our market position.

Our target is for all our processes and supports an integrated business, environmental behavior of all stakeholders.

Our sub-contractors we accept as a partner with which we are in an open, performance-oriented maintain communication.
